

Regulations of Teacher/Researcher Award, Taipei Medical University

Taipei Medical University, Modified on May 25, 2018

- Article 1 In order to encourage teachers to improve their teaching, research, and service performance, and motivate researchers to enhance their research and service quality, the University has established the "Regulations of Teacher/Researcher Award, Taipei Medical University " (hereinafter referred to as the Regulations).
- Article 2 All full-time teachers and researchers (including those who are on paid/unpaid leave of absence) are qualified as award candidates, and the list of winners is processed annually.
- Article 3 The awards are divided into five categories: "Teaching Award," "Academic Research Award," "Administrative Service Award," "Model Teacher Award," and "Excellent Mentor Award."
- Article 4 The "Teaching Award" aims to reward teachers whose teaching quality is highly affirmed by students.
- Article 5 The "Academic Research Award" is designed to reward teachers and researchers with outstanding academic research results.
- Article 6 The "Administrative Service Award" is intended to reward teachers and researchers who also perform well in administrative work.
- Article 7 The "Model Teacher Award" is meant to reward teachers who have demonstrated outstanding performance in teaching, research and service.
- Article 8 The "Excellent Mentor Award" is intended to reward teachers with specific distinguished performance as a class mentor.
- Article 9 A teacher or researcher with exceptional excellence in different categories may be awarded repeatedly.
- Article 10 The criteria and operating procedures of the above five categories of awards are separately set up and evaluated by each assessment panel, respectively.
- Article 11 The Regulations shall be publicized to implement after the approval of the University Evaluation Committee and the Board of Directors. The same procedure applies to an amendment.
